

Speech: Fake News and the Courts

Taichung, Taiwan. December 19th, 2018 - Department of Financial and Economic Law held public speech delivered by Professor Ruth M. Hagrove from California Western School of Law, United State of America. She delivered the topic about “US Courts’ Treatment of False News Reporting and the Courts’ Reaction to Trump’s Accusation That Press is Fake News”. In her speech, she says “every sentence he (Red-Trump) say is a lie”. She strongly criticizes to White House in treating Press that as fake producer. Meanwhile, press has a role as fundamental instrument of democracy. Because, one of the pillar of democracy is freedom to speech and freedom to get information. “When Trump insulted press, he also insulted democracy itself,” she (Red-Hargrove) says. This agenda was attended by bachelor, master, and Ph.D students of law. In her closing statement, says “we have elected the biggest liar as a President of US”.

Written by Rofi Aulia Rahman